Addition to Vita

Benjamin J. Albritton, Psy.D. is a native of Dallas and graduated from the University of Texas. He later received a four-year Master of Theology degree from Dallas Theological Seminary. During that time, he worked with youth in several church organizations, including Young Life. Following his work at DTS he taught theology for two years with The International School of Theology. At that point he re-entered graduate school, received a master's and doctoral degree in Clinical Psychology from Biola University in California. For part of his practical work, which began in 1983, he worked for the County of Los Angeles conducting evaluations for abused and neglected children. He returned to Dallas to complete his internship at Dallas Child Guidance Clinic, continuing evaluation and treatment of children. His postdoctoral year was done at the Minirth-Meier clinic working in the areas of inpatient and outpatient psychotherapy, which included adult and adolescent treatment and evaluation.

Dr. Albritton entered private practice in 1985 in offices located near Presbyterian Hospital in Dallas. He continues private practice in the Park Cities. He has acted as a Clinical Consultant for Doug Cosbie Youth and Family Growth Center, Swiss Avenue Counseling Center, and Highland Park Presbyterian Family Life Center. He has been on the governing boards of My Guardian Angel and Girl's Adventure Trail and the Highland Park Presbyterian Mediative School and the 24-Hour Club. He was a therapist for Incest Recovery Center for two years. He was a co-founder of Southwestern Child & Family Associates, Inc., a multi-disciplinary group made up of psychiatrists, psychologists, social workers, and counselors.

Dr. Albritton is a founder and president of Southwest Clinical and Forensics. He was an adjunct professor at Dallas Theological Seminary and was on the faculty at Covenant High School. He is a member in good standing of Texas Psychological Association, American Psychological Association (including Division 41 for Psychology and the Law). He was listed in the National Registry of Health Service Providers. He was on allied staff at Columbia Green Oaks Hospital at Medical City Dallas, Timberlawn Hospital and Presbyterian Hospital of Plano. His primary areas of expertise included evaluation and treatment of children and adolescents, in addition to his continued work with adults.

In 1991, Dr. Albritton began actively testifying in court related matters, particularly matters involving custody of young children. Since that time, he has pursued supervision as well as additional continuing education within the field of forensic psychology. He receives numerous appointments from the court as well as provides expert testimony in criminal, civil, and custody matters. He is board certified in Forensic Psychology by the American Board of Professional Psychology.
